In this time of international complications, much is being said about the Monroe doctrine, and the question naturally arises, What is the Monroe doctrine? Is it an international law? Is it a treaty, or what does it consist of? The Lawton Daily News and Star, in discussing this proposition, in its issue of March 5th, says:

The "Monroe Doctrine" is a paragraph from the Message of President Monroe, sent to the Congress of the United States, the first Monday of December, 1823 and reads as follows:

"In the wars of the European powers, in matters relating to themselves, we have never taken any part, nor does it comport with our policy so to do. It is only when our rights are invaded, or seriously menaced, that we resent injuries, or make preparations for our defense. With the movements in this hemisphere, we are, of necessity, more immediately connected, and by causes which must be obvious to all enlightened and impartial observers. The political system of the allied powers is essentially different from that which exists in their respective governments; and to the defense of our own, which has been achieved by the loss of so much blood and treasure, and matured by the wisdom of their most enlightened citizens, and under which we have enjoyed unexampled felicity, this whole nation is devoted.

"We owe it, therefore, to candor, and to the amicable relations existing between the United States and those European Powers, to declare that we should consider any attempt on their part to extend their system to any portion of this hemisphere as dangerous to our peace and safety.

"With the existing colonies or dependencies of any European Power, we have not interfered, and shall not interfere. But with the governments who have declared their independence and maintained it, and whose independence we have, on great consideration and on just principles, we could not view any interposition for the purpose of oppressing them or controlling in any other manner their destiny by any European Power, in any other light than as the manifestation of an unfriendly disposition toward the United States."

An Oil City, Wilson, Town Lots Offer- ed at Auction

A town lot proposition that is attracting far more than the usual attention, is that at Wilson, the oil center at the western terminus of the Oklahoma, New Mexico & Pacific Railroad (Ringling Road).

Wilson has had a wonderfu growth, being now only sixty days old but having a population of 1500. The building of this new railroad westward and the discovery and rapid development of the Wilson-Healdton oil field together with inexhaustible supplies of natural gas, have caused Wilson to go forward at a surprising rate.

The town lot sale, 600 lots being on the market, will take place on March 5, 6 and 7 (three days) with Col. John B. Queen of Perry as auctioneer.

Wilson is in the western portion of Carter County, near where the counties of Carter, Jefferson and Stephens join, and in the center of a wonderfully productive agricultural and live stock country. There are untouched riches, in fact, all around and under Wilson.

The natural gas possibilities are beyond comprehension. Cheap natural gas means factories and allied industries, and the big oil field means refineries, and Wilson is bound to win. Nothing can prevent it.

The same conditions that made Tulsa, Beaumont and Wichita Falls are Wilson's and even more so for Wilson has no opposition.

It is the only Wilson-Healdton oil town.
All the 600 lots are to be sold at the purchaser's own price, absolutely none to be reserved. The conditions are 30 per cent down and the remainder in 10 per cent monthly payments.

The sale pavilion will be located on the lots, and rain or shine the sale will be held.

Free every day, also, will be given away two choice residence lots, and each person attending the sale will have an opportunity to draw these. Tickets will be given each morning to all comers and the lucky number gets the lots.

This is an opportunity to get a home or a business site in the fastest growing city in the southwest, and one that is bound to become an important industrial and agricultural center. The soil around Wilson grows a bale of cotton to the acre and the farms are teeming with cattle and hogs.

This is a business opportunity, of the brand that pays.

For these three days, March 5, 6 and 7, the Oklahoma & Pacific Railway (Ringling Road) will sell a round trip ticket for one fare.

Jake L. Hamon is the owner of the townsite, Frank L. Ketch is sales manager and John B. Queen, auctioneer.

Atmore, to Willcox.

What then are good manners? Simply a fine and always thoughtful con-also grace, under all circumstances; and with women especially, no matter thing in women."
